

Native Outreach Initiative Webinar Series

September 11 | 12:00pm - 2:00pm ET

Cultural Bond: Strength of Family Engagement & Support in Indigenous Communities

Gain insights from Tribal speakers on valued cultural practices and traditions and the important roles of families in planning, decision-making, and sustaining engagement and participation in communities and educational and support agencies.

Objectives:

1. Explore the traditional and contemporary roles of family and understand community support.
2. Develop an understanding of the diversity within and across different communities.
3. Learn cultural values and practices that impact and influence in accessing services and support.

VERONICA ANTONE
Tohono O'odham
Adoptive Parent/Grandma
Working Mom

DARRIN CISCO
Cultural Specialist Apache
Tribe of Oklahoma
Vocational Rehabilitation

AMANDA HOLMES
Citizen of the Chickahominy Indian
Tribe of Virginia

GERALDINE PATRICIO
Tohono O'odham
Retired School Employee
Grandparent

PAULA SEANEZ
Director, OSERS
Department of Dine' Education
Navajo Nation

NERISSA BIRDSSELL
Co-Facilitator
VCU-RRTC

TREVA ROANHORSE
Co-Facilitator
Member of Navajo Nation
Vice President - CANAR

Register Here:

<https://vcurrtc.org/registration/webcast/index.cfm?webcastID=1690>